

Love is

"A person's rightful due is to be treated as an object of love, not as an object for use." - St. Pope John Paul II

"What is love? Baby don't hurt me, don't hurt me...no more." Many songs have been written about love, but over the years it seems as though people have gotten more confused about what love is. God created people to be loved and things to be used, but our culture has flipped it around, so that people are used and things are loved.

Along the way this series will answer the burning questions:

- Who am I?
- What is love?
- How do I know if I'm being loved or being used?
  - What's the deal with chastity?
  - What is my purpose in life?

Learn how to navigate these sometimes daunting questions as we share God's plan for human love and sexuality through the beautiful teaching of St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body.

This series – available for teens and adults – delves into questions on marriage, love, relationships, dating and chastity. It is led by Jack Rigert, director of the John Paul II Renewal Center, and recent college graduate, Rene Schroeder.
